OPEN ITEMS

- A resident expressed concern that emergency vehicles are unable to get out of the Guadalupe gate, resulting in a serious medical emergency. The emergency vehicle needed to be rerouted to the Pollard gate to exit.

ACTION: Peggy stated that she had been visiting with Christie the day before and during that visit, a comment was made that she thought Glenn and Paul were looking to adjust some kind of automatic system for emergency vehicles to be able to open the gate. There was no formal response to the board about this issue.

MISCELLANEOUS- Fundraising ideas

- Cheryl gave an update as to the Hundred X fundraiser. Reached 77% of goal as of 10/2 for approximately $3,700. Six more days - thru October 6. Cheryl is able to print out a list which shows that 90 people have participated in this survey. 20+ have done 50 or over. A search of products can be done instead of looking at "bubbles" of items. Can't do surveys on local restaurants. Surveys take about a minute to do. 75 is the maximum of surveys that a person can do.
  ACTION: Cheryl will put names of those who did 50 or more for the drawing for $100 gift card.

- LuAnn gave an update on the Resident Association's car port sale fundraiser. It will be held on Saturday, November 7; the same day as the community wide sale. Items to be donated can be dropped off at Unit 41 beginning Monday, October 26. Items not sold during the sale will either be returned to resident or donated to a non-profit organization.
  ACTION: Flyer will be sent out to residents soon.

- Board seeking a committee to assist in the upcoming Chili Cookoff on January 20, 2027.
  ACTION: Please see one of the board members after the meeting if interested in being on this committee.

BOARD ACTIVITY REPORT

- Nominations for two open board seats. Another board member may be leaving, but waiting for resignation letter. After election, board will decide on board positions. Currently have two interested residents, Sara Studer and Donna Parco. Sara gave a brief bio; Donna was unable to attend this meeting. Volunteers are needed to count the votes at the election in November.
  ACTION: Marie McKee, Sharon Hauser, and Nancy Kochanski volunteered to help. Pam Williams will also help if available.

- Solicit suggestions of non-profit organizations that members would like to see LPGRA donate money to at the end of the year. Currently, these non-profits have been suggested: Make a Wish Foundation of AZ, The 100 Club of AZ, AZ Humane Society, Tunnels for Towers, Phoenix Children's Hospital, House of Refuge, and Salt River Horse Management. Discussion and selection will take place at the December general meeting.

RESIDENT QUESTIONS AND CONCERNS

- Several burned out light bulbs have yet to be replaced at the Ellsworth entrance.

ACTION: Will be brought up to management again; was previous brought up several months ago.

- Pool is at 80 degrees
  ACTION: It was reported that pool heater will be turned on beginning of next week.
- Resident asked if bylaws were amended to extend the cut off of nominations for board.
  ACTION: Bylaws were not amended.
- Can we put permanent lights on homes?
  ACTION: It was suggested to check with maintenance.
- Anyone received notice that they have to paint their house? It was noted that warranty expires if someone powerwashes their home.
  ACTION: Resident encouraged to go to maintenance to get a list of legitimate house painting contractors.
